CONSENT ORDER TO CONTINUE HEARING
TO ALLOW FOR COMPLIANCE

This Petition To Enforce Internal Revenue Service Summons came to be heard this 12th day of March, 2009, upon a transfer from Judge E. Richard Webber. Petitioner was represented by counsel, Assistant United States Attorney Wesley D. Wedemeyer. Respondent Saverin appeared in person, and with counsel Thomas C. Pliske and David V. Capes.

Counsel for Respondent announced that they had no legal defense to the enforcement of the Petition. Counsel for Petitioner announce that the Internal Revenue Service was willing to allow Mr. Saverin four weeks to produce the documents subpoenaed by the Service's Administrative Summons. Accordingly, by consent of the parties, the Order To Show Cause previously entered in this matter is continued to April 13, 2009. If there is full or substantial compliance with the Administrative Summons at issue in this case, government counsel shall so notify the Court. If the records and documents described in Exhibit 1 attached to the government's Petition are not produced, the parties are directed to appear before U.S. District Judge E. Richard Webber in Courtroom 12-South of the Thomas F. Eagleton U.S. Courthouse on Thursday, April 9, 2009 at 8:30 a.m.

CATHERINE D. PERRY
